

Mystery Experience

Overview: The Mystery Experience trip is an exciting new opportunity to celebrate Buck-I-SERV's 15th Anniversary. This trip is for anyone who is willing to serve anywhere in the United States without knowing where the location is at the time of joining the trip. Applicants can select this experience on the Buck-I-SERV application. Group members will then be randomly assigned to the Mystery Experience trip. Participants will then be required to commit to the trip by making a trip deposit. Once all participants have confirmed their participation, Buck-I-SERV will release the trip's location and service.

All applicants for this trip should be willing and able to travel by various modes of transportation including car, van, bus, plane and train. Applicants should also be willing and able to engage in physical tasks for the service site. No passport is required as the location will be within the United States.
