MEDICI PROJECT: NASHVILLE

Overview: The mission of Medici Project is to help students gain clarity in how they can leverage their passions and skill sets to serve others, predominately through future vocations they are pursuing. Being exposed and understanding how they can make a strategic impact in their own communities is vital to influencing culture for the common good. Medici Nashville tackles the social justice issues of homelessness, hunger, and poverty, while also highlighting social entrepreneurship service and how it incorporates business funding social issues and causes.

Day-to-Day: Service will consist of a morning session from 9:00AM - Noon and an afternoon session from 1:00PM – 5:00PM each day. Students will be working with various organizations in the community to have a hand in multiple types of service.

The Nitty Gritty Details: The groups will be staying in churches and the housing is fully arranged by Medici. Student will need to bring their own pillows as well as blow-up mattresses or mats. Food is not included in the trip price. However there is a kitchen at the housing site for breakfast, as well as the opportunity for students to pack a sack lunch each day. The group will also have a small budget for groceries to cook their own breakfast, dinners and lunches.

SPECIFICATIONS

Location: Nashville, TN
Price: $330
Price includes:
- Transportation
- Housing
- Program fees
- Tools/supplies needed for service

Transportation: Participants will travel by a 50 person charter bus to the destination. A rental vehicle will be used around the city.

Housing: Church

Meals: Not Included

Social Justice Issue: Juvenile Justice and Incarceration, Youth, Education

Physicality Level: Low

Buck-I-SERV
1739 N. High Street
Columbus, OH 43210
(614) 247-2525

The Ohio State University