Serving the children of migrant workers and farmers by aiding in preschool classrooms and tutoring high school students

Overview: Located in Immokalee, Florida in a community where over 40% of the population lives below the poverty line, and 97% of school-ages students are in need. Pathways began in 1962 and is now the longest running childcare and education center in Immokalee. Most of the children at Pathways come from homes where Spanish is their native language, and many families in the community are migrant workers.

Day-to-day: Participants will serve with Pathways in the as aids in the preschool classrooms. Tasks may include building educational activities, assisting staff with classroom work, and helping with infrastructure projects.

The Nitty-Gritty Details: Group members will stay in bunk rooms at the retreat house. Lunch is provided each day at Pathways, and 2 meals are provided by OSU Alumni. Participants will be given a small budget for groceries to use for other meals. It is recommended that you bring a budget for additional meals.
